

BODY OF GATES ON LINER WHICH SAILED TO-DAY

STOWAWAYS LOST IN THE "STREETS" OF GIANT LINER

Arrangements Completed for the Funeral Next Wednesday at Hotel Plaza.

Bearing the body of John W. Gates, the late financier who died in Paris, the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse to-day sailed from Cherbourg for this city. Among the passengers were the widow of Mr. Gates and her son, Charles G. Gates. Before going aboard the ship the surviving members of the family had completed arrangements by cable for the funeral services, which will be held next Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, from the Hotel Plaza, where Mr. Gates has maintained a suite of rooms which cost him $1,000 a year since the erection of the hotel.

The Rev. Wallace Macmillan, pastor of the Madison Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, will conduct the services which are to be held in the large assembly room at the hotel while the musical programme will be made up by Nathan Franko, and besides several violin solos will include suitable hymns sung by a picked quartet. Two entire floors in the hotel have been set aside for the accommodation of relatives and friends coming to the funeral. Interment will be at Woodlawn Cemetery, where Mrs. Gates will select a lot upon her arrival, the death of her husband being the first in their immediate family.

Probably the most interesting attendant at the funeral will be an aged uncle of the deceased, Sherbourne Gates of Durand, Mich. He is more than eighty years old, but he has insisted that he can make the journey to the funeral. Other relatives for whom quarters have been taken are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Baker of St. Charles, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Angell of Chicago, being sisters of Mrs. Gates and their husbands. St. Charles was the birthplace of Mr. Gates.

There will also be a very large delegation from Port Arthur, Tex., the city of 10,000, which Mr. Gates was engaged in putting upon the map at the time of his death. The following heads of the various enterprises there, all of which owed their employment to the business genius of Mr. Gates, have written that they are coming to the funeral: C. Flanagan, S. O. Latimer, Rev. Mr. La Grone, George M. Craig, A. Goldberg, N. J. Gifford, Henry Lehman, W. N. McReynolds, George N. Bliss, C. E. Blas, J. Deller and Frank Ireland.

Beaumont, Tex., which is the seat of further business activities of Mr. Gates, has wired that it is sending a delegation, consisting of Col. Davidson, Paul Helsing, J. N. Gilbert, E. A. Fletcher, J. F. Keith and P. B. Doty.

Others who are coming are John Lambert of Joliet, Ill.; E. W. Oglebay of Cleveland, O.; G. Watson French of Davenport, Ia.; John J. Mitchell and James C. Hutchins of Chicago, Sir Donald Man of Toronto, Can.; Walter B. Sharp of Houston, Tex.; R. H. Woldsworth of Port Arthur, Tex., and V. C. Hogg, a son of the former Governor of Texas.

The honorary pallbearers will include Harry S. Black, John F. Harris, Edwin H. Johnson, William G. Smith, Alfred Clifford, Grant B. Schley, Arnold Schleser, L. H. Lapham, John A. Drake, John A. Topping, Charles M. Schwab, L. C. Hanna, James Hopkins, F. A. Vanderlip and Alvin W. Krich.

BOY'S JOKE CAUSES HUBBUB IN WHITEHALL BUILDING.

False Alarm of Fire Turns On Sprinklers, Alarms Tenants and Draws a Crowd.

If the superintendent of the thirty-story Whitehall Building, No. 17 Battery place, ever meets the joker who stuck his finger through an automatic fire alarm box on the fifteenth floor to-day, the chances are strong that the police will have to deal with a near-tragedy. A few minutes after the tenants of the building had come into their offices for the day an alarm was rung that turned loose automatic sprinklers, and though the Fire Department, made the elevators scoop up and down and attracted the largest crowd that has thronged Battery Park since the unveiling of the monument to the Italian navigator who discovered the Hudson River.

In vain the firemen searched for the blaze. It couldn't be located. After it was found that there was no fire an inspection of the automatic boxes revealed the fact that one of them had been set off. One of the elevator men remembers a boy who was chuckling to himself all the way down from the fifteenth floor, but his identity is not known. Whoever he is he would better keep away from the Whitehall Building.

ALL FOR HER.
From the Louisville Courier-Journal.
"Do you really love me, hubby?"
"Why do you suppose I wear this fringed coat and this tramp makeup? Merely to appear eccentric!"
